Q: What are my voting rights in the Condominium Association?

A: Each unit is entitled to one vote. See Article 3.2 of the Association Bylaws, as amended.

Q: What restrictions exist in the condominium documents on my right to use my unit?

A: Each Unit is hereby restricted to Single Family Residential use by the Owner or Owners thereof, or their tenants. No nuisances shall be allowed to be committed or maintained upon the Condominium Property nor any use or practice that is the source of annoyance to residents, or which interfere with peaceful possession and proper use of the property by its residents. A Unit Owner may keep no more than two pets, which must be either dogs that do not weigh more than fifty (50) pounds each, or domestic cats. Signs, advertisements, exterior items and notices are restricted. Parking and types of vehicles are restricted. No hanging or drying of items on the exterior of units. See, Article 13 of the Declaration of Condominium, and Association Rules for these and other restrictions.

Q: What restrictions exist in the condominium documents on the leasing of my unit?

A: Only entire units shall be leased. The minimum lease term is 90 days. No leasing for more than three (3) separate terms within a one-year period. Total number of occupants of a leased Unit is two (2) per bedroom. Tenants cannot have pets on the property. Uniform lease form may be required and copies of all leases shall be provided to the Association. Units purchased after March 21, 2016, are subject to the "no more than 32 units may be rented" rule pursuant to subsection (a) of Section 14.1 of Article 14 of the Declaration. In addition, Units purchased after April 20, 2017 that subsection (b) of Section 14.1 of Article 14 of the Declaration becomes effective may not be rented or leased for 24 months following the date the Unit is purchased. After this 24-month period, the Unit will be subject to the "no more than 32 units may be rented" rule. Please refer to Article 14.1 for the applicable grandfathering provisions for these rules. Owners must advise the manager of the Association of the name and address of the tenant, the dates of the tenancy, and provide a copy of the lease to the Association. See, Article 14 of the Declaration of Condominium for these and other restrictions.
